

October 31, 2017
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

I alert you to the transaction described below:

Transaction

Inperium Inc., which in 2015 became the nation's first not-for-profit human services organization to sponsor an employee stock ownership program, has entered into a definitive affiliation agreement with Reading Specialists Educational Association ("RSEA"). Terms of the affiliation agreement were not disclosed. This transaction with Inperium will enable RSEA to extend its services both clinically and geographically.

Inperium Chief Executive Ryan Smith commented regarding this transaction: "Inperium is continuing to expand its service offerings to include more additional services and opportunities for children and youth in the PA."

John H. Deppeler IV., Inperium's Executive Vice President, will provide oversight of the RSEA Programs adding "RSEA will be able to leverage relationships with other Inperium-affiliated entities that work with the PA Juvenile Justice System to continue its growth to transform the lives of the kids entrusted to our care."

Dr. Robert Gill added "at this time, Dr. Kraus of SafeGuards Foster Care and I are happy to announce that we have aligned with Inperium in their quest to provide a quality of continuum of treatment care within their growing services network."

About Inperium, Inc.

Inperium, Inc. is a private, nonprofit Pennsylvania corporation exempt from federal income taxes pursuant to IRC 501(c)(3). Headquartered in Reading, PA, Inperium's purpose is to conduct programs that improve the quality of life for children and adults with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities or behavioral health needs. Additional information concerning Inperium may be found on its website: www.inperium.org.